

MEETING TO-NIGHT.

Col. E. A. Calkins and others will speak at the Court Room this evening. Rally, Union men, and fill the hall.

Matt. H. Carpenter, Esq., is in the city, but too unwell to speak.

PROFESSOR DONATI, the astronomer at Florence, announces the discovery of a new comet, being the third of the present year, in the constellation of Leo Minor. Its motion is very slow, which leads to the supposition that it is approaching the earth and sun, and is, therefore, not unlikely to appear under much larger dimensions than at present. Mr. Donati further states that the second comet of this year, discovered on the 29th of July last, has disappeared from the Northern hemisphere; but is still visible in the Southern one. We shall be able to see it in January next by the aid of very powerful telescopes.

THE TROY TIMES, referring to the famous trotting horse Royal George, owned by Mr. Floyd, of Buffalo, says that J. N. Parker, veterinary surgeon, made post mortem examination of the deceased horse in the presence of a large concourse of gentlemen interested in the turf. One lung of the animal was found to be entirely gone, and the other was in a state of disease, being filled with tubercles. The horse, which would trot a mile in 2:24, and was worth about $15,000, had died from exhaustion.

GEN. DAVID B. BIRNEY, almost in the hour of his death, presented an example of patriotism which should be a reproof to all the lukewarm and a spur to all the careless nominally in the Union ranks. He was brought to Philadelphia on election day, with the impression of death upon his features. Before allowing himself to be taken to his home, he insisted upon being carried to the polls, to vote, as a citizen, for the cause for which he had fought as a soldier.

On the occasion of the anniversary of the coronation of Alexander II., of Russia, at the Russian Chapel at Paris, on the 7th of September, a strange incident occurred. While all in the chapel were on their knees in profound silence, a deep sepulchral voice exclaimed: "Long live Poland!" Everybody was frightened excepting the priest, who went on with the service.

WHAT IS THE PROPOSITION OF THE REBELS TO PLACE THEIR ABLE-BODIED SLAVES IN THEIR ARMS, AND FREE THEM AS A REWARD OF THEIR MILITARY SERVICES, BUT A CONFESSION THAT THE REBELLION IS RAPIDLY NEARING ITS DESTRUCTION? WOULD THEY DREAM OF ARMING THEIR NEGROES UNLESS THEIR CASE WAS DESPERATE? COURAGE! THE END OF THE REBELLION IS APPROACHING.

"THE SAFETY OF OUR LINES IN VIRGINIA CAN NOT FAIRLY BE LEFT TO LEE'S PRESENT ARMY, WHICH HAS SO GREAT A LOAD ON IT ALREADY," SAYS THE RICHMOND WHIG. THE REBELS "HAVE ROBBED THE CRADLE AND THE GRAVE," WRITES GEN. GRANT. "WE DEMAND AN IMMEDIATE CESSION OF HOSTILITIES," CROAKS THE CHICAGO COPPERHEADS.

HON. H. WINTER DAVIS, OF BALTIMORE, HAS BEEN ADEQUATELY REWARDED FOR HIS SHARE OF THE "WADE AND DAVIS MANIFESTO," ISSUED SOME TIME SINCE. HIS PATRIOTIC CONSTITUENTS HAVE REFUSED TO RENOMINATE HIM FOR ELECTION TO CONGRESS. COLONEL PHOLPS, A DEVOTED UNIONIST, WILL BE MR. DAVIS'S SUCCESSOR.

WE PRINT HEREWITHE THE NOBLE LETTER FROM MATT. H. CARPENTER IN REPLY TO THE WAR DEMOCRATS OF THIS CITY, WHICH SHOULD NOT ESCAPE THE EYE OF OUR READERS. IT NOT ONLY RIDES THE CHICAGO CONVENTION'S PLATFORM QUITE THOROUGHLY, BUT IT CROWDS MR. JONATHAN E. ARNOLD INTO A MIGHTY TIGHT CORNER.

THE 112TH NEW YORK REGIMENT HAVE VOTED AS FOLLOWS: LINCOLN, 235; McCLELLAN, 9; FENTON, 294, UNANIMOUS. THE 169TH NEW YORK VOTED, UNION, 481; DEMOCRAT, 77. THE BALLOTS WERE FORWARDED BY MAIL TO THE SEVERAL PROXIES DESIGNATED BY THE VOTERS."

GEN. BEAUREGARD RECENTLY MADE A SPEECH AT AUGUSTA, GA., IN WHICH HE SAID "I FIRED THE FIRST GUN AT FORT SUMTER, AND I HOPE TO LIVE LONG ENOUGH TO FIRE THE LAST." SO BEAUREGARD IS THE "BLACK REPUBLICAN," WHO BEGAN "THE WAR FOR THE NEGRO."

THE UNION MEN HAVE CARRIED NEBRASKA, ELECTING PHINEAS W. HITCHCOOK TO CONGRESS BY OVER 1,500 MAJORITY, AND ELECTING MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL TO THE COUPPERHEADS THREE, AND THIRTY MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE TO THE COUPPERHEADS NINE.

DO OUR READERS REMEMBER REBECCA, THE LITTLE WHITE SLAVE GIRL FROM THE SOUTH? THERE WAS A WHOLE COLUMN OF ARGUMENT IN HER ANSWER, WHEN SHE WAS ASKED IF SHE WOULD VOTE FOR McCLELLAN: "IF I WERE A REBEL, I WOULD!"

"SUNSET COX," OF OHIO, HAVING FAILED OF A RE-ELECTION TO CONGRESS, WILL HAVE LEISURE TO WRITE, "THE BUCKEYES AT HOME," AS A SEQUEL TO HIS "BUCKEYE ABROAD."

A GENTLEMAN WHO HAS JUST ARRIVED FROM DIXIE STATES THAT RECENTLY THE REBELS IN MOBILE, NOTWITHSTANDING THE FACT THAT CANDLES AND OTHER NEEDFUL ARTICLES WERE VERY SCARCE, GOT UP A GRAND ILLUMINATION IN HONOR OF THE VICTORIES OF EARLY IN THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY.

THE SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN SAYS: "WE LEARN THAT CALEB CUSHING REFUSES ALL INVITATIONS TO SPEAK PUBLICLY IN MCCLELLAN'S BEHALF, AND PRIVATELY DENOUNCES THE CHICAGO PLATFORM AS TREASON."

JANESVILLE, WIS., WEDNESDAY, OCT. 26, 1864.

NUMBER 204.

LETTER FROM MAJ. GEN. CARL SCHURZ.
WATERTOWN, WIS., OCT. 24TH, 1864.

A. M. THOMSON, JANESVILLE, WIS.

MY DEAR SIR.—Your letter of invitation reached me at Madison on the 22d inst. Nothing could have given me greater pleasure than to address on the 20th of this month, the people of the southern part of the State, which I am proud to call my home, did not previous engagement oblige me to be at Milwaukee on that day. But I am sure, words of wisdom; of patriotism and of good cheer will not be wanting at your great mass meeting.

I AM happy to say the evidences of popular enthusiasm for the great cause of our country, which I have witnessed wherever I had the good fortune to meet the people assembled in large masses, leave no doubt as to the certainty of our success at the approaching election. Our arms are blessed with victory, and, what is no less important, the minds of the people are blessed with a just appreciation of the grand mission of the American Republic among the nations of the earth.

But, however sure we may consider the victory of the good cause, no effort should be spared to make the triumph of patriotism over treason and cowardice, overwhelmingly crushing and final. Every vote added to our majority will not only raise this Republic in the esteem of mankind, but it will shorten the war by a day and save the life of one of the fighting citizens of the country.

LET NO MAN GO TO REST IN THE EVENING WITHOUT BEING ABLE TO SAY TO HIMSELF THAT DURING THE DAY HE HAS DONE SOMETHING FOR OUR GREAT CAUSE.

YOU WILL OBLIGE ME, MY DEAR SIR, BY EXPLAINING TO ALL THE GENTLEMEN WHO HAVE SIGNED THEIR NAMES TO THIS LETTER OF INVITATION, MY SINCERE APPRECIATION OF THE DISTINGUISHED HONOR THEY HAVE DONE ME, TOGETHER WITH THE ASSURANCE ON MY PART, THAT, ALTHOUGH I HAVE TO FORGO THE PLEASURE OF MEETING THEM ON THE 20TH, I SHALL BE FOUND FAITHFULLY ENDEAVORING TO DO THE DUTY OF A PATRIOT AT ANOTHER PLACE, WHERE THE CHURCH MILITANT HAS TO RECOVER LOST GROUND IN ORDER TO BECOME AGAIN THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT. MOST TRULY YOURS, C. SCHURZ.

THE PRESIDENT CALLS FOR CHEERS.—A UNION TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION TOOK PLACE IN WASHINGTON ON FRIDAY NIGHT. THE PARADE WENT TO THE WHITE HOUSE AND CALLED UPON THE PRESIDENT TO MAKE A SPEECH. THE PRESIDENT SPOKE AS FOLLOWS:

"FELLOW CITIZENS.—I WAS PROMISED NOT TO BE CALLED UPON FOR A SPEECH TO-NIGHT, NOR DO I PROPOSE TO MAKE ONE, BUT WE HAVE BEEN HAVING SOME VERY GOOD NEWS FOR A DAY OR TWO, SO I PROPOSE THAT YOU GIVE THREE HEARTY CHEERS FOR SHERIDAN. WHILE WE ARE AT IT, WE MAY AS WELL CONSIDER HOW FORTUNE IT WAS FOR THE SECESSION, THAT SHERIDAN WAS A LITTLE MAN. IF HE HAD BEEN A LARGE MAN THERE IS NO TELLING WHAT HE WOULD HAVE DONE WITH THEM. I PROPOSE THREE CHEERS FOR GRANT, WHO KNOWS TO WHAT USE TO PUT GENERAL SHERIDAN; THREE CHEERS FOR ALL OUR NOBLE COMMANDERS, AND THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS; THREE CHEERS FOR ALL THE PEOPLE, EVERYWHERE, WHO CHEER THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS OF THE UNION. AND NOW GOOD NIGHT." THE PROCESSION PASSED THROUGH PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, AND WAS ONE HOUR AND FIFTEEN MINUTES IN PASSING ONE POINT.

THE PROCESSION.

THE PROCESSION WAS MADE UP AS FOLLOWS: BAND WAGON, ARTILLERY COMPANY, JANEVILLE CITY CAR, REPRESENTING THE DIFFERENT MECHANICAL TRADES ALL AT WORK, MR. G. NEELTON'S WAGON CONTAINING A MINIATURE CARPENTER'S SHOP IN FULL BLAST, DARLING'S MUSIC WAGON, DELEGATIONS OF HARMONY, JOHNSTOWN, MILTON, LIMA, BAND, BAND, BOLOI AND BAND, CENTER, MONROE, PLYMOUTH, PORTER, WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE WAGON.

MOTORS AND BANNERS.

SOME OF THE MORE PROMINENT BANNERS AND MOTORS WE MENTION BELOW. ON THE JANEVILLE MECHANICS' CAR.

A FUNNY CASE OF LOVE AND MONEY.—DR. KANT, OF VIENNA, WAS IN LOVE WITH A RICH YOUNG LADY, AND TOLD ANOTHER RICH LADY, NOT YOUNG, WHO WAS IN LOVE WITH HIM, THAT POVERTY WAS HIS REASON FOR NOT MARRYING. THE LATTER GENEROUSLY THE NEXT DAY MADE OVER TO HIM 150,000 GULDERS, AND SENT THE DEED WITH A NOTE AS FOLLOWS:

"DEAR SIR: I HAVE MUCH PLEASURE IN CLOSING A PAPER WHICH I HOPE WILL REMOVE THE OBSTACLE IN THE WAY OF YOUR MARRIAGE. BELIEVE ME, ETC., ALICE MARTINI." DR. KANT, FOR HE AND NO OTHER WAS THE ADDRESS, WAS THE HAPPIEST MAN IN THE WORLD ON RECEIVING THIS GENEROUS EPISODE.

BUT, ALSO! THAT HE SHOULD HAVE PUT A DIFFERENT CONSTRUCTION ON IT TO THAT EXPECTED. REPAIRING AT ONCE TO THE PARENTS OF FRAUENFELD, THE LADY OF HIS LOVE, HE PROPOSED FOR HER AND WAS ACCEPTED. HIS REPLY TO ALICE MARTINI, BEHIND CONVEYING HIS SINCEREST THANKS, CONTAINED TWO CARDS DE VISITE, LINKED TOGETHER BY THE SIGNIFICANT ROSE-COLORED RIBBON. MISS MARTINI FORTHWITH SUED THE HAPPY BRIDE-GROOM FOR RESTitution, BUT AS NO PROMISE OF MARRIAGE HAD BEEN MADE, THE CASE WAS, BY TWO SUCCESSIVE COURTS, DECIDED AGAINST HER.

SHOCKING CASUALTY.—A YOUNG LADY PASSENGER ON THE CENTRAL OHIO RAILROAD, ON HER WAY FROM LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY, TO HER HOME IN PHILADELPHIA, AND A CHILD WERE KILLED ON WEDNESDAY, EAST OF COLUMBUS. THE STATEMAN SAYS:

"WHEN NEAR PATERSON, AND IN RAPID MOTION, A BRAKEMAN ORDERED A LADY WHO HAD SEVEN CHILDREN WITH HER, FROM ONE CAR TO ANOTHER. THE MOTHER WHILE PASSING OUT, REQUESTED A YOUNG LADY PASSENGER TO ASSIST HER ACROSS THE PLATFORM WITH HER FAMILY, AND THE YOUNG LADY GENEROUSLY VOLUNTEERED HER ASSISTANCE. TAKING A CHILD ABOUT THREE YEARS OLD IN HER ARMS, THE YOUNG LADY ATTEMPTED TO STEP FROM ONE PLATFORM TO ANOTHER, BUT HER FOOT OR SKIRT CAUGHT UP SOMETHING, AND SHE WAS PRECIPITATED UNDER THE CARS, STILL HOLDING THE CHILD IN HER ARMS. THE WHEELS OF TWO CARS PASSED OVER HER, CUTTING OFF BOTH HER FEET ABOVE THE INSTEP, ONE ARM AT THE SHOULDER, AND MANGLING HER PERSON IN A SHOCKING MANNER. SHE LIVED BUT A FEW MINUTES, AND THE CHILD WAS INSTANTLY KILLED."

CARPENTER, T. COLE, REPRESENTATIVE; DEVICE OF A MONUMENT INSCRIBED "TO THE MEMORY OF THE GRAVE DIGGER OF THE CHICKAHOMINY, GEO. B. McCLELLAN; DIED FROM THE EFFECTS OF THE CHICAGO PLATFORM, ACCEPTED SEPT. 8, 1864."

TINNER, V. L. MERRILL, REPRESENTATIVE; "BRAZEN LIES ENTICE US, NOR CAN WE BE FOOLED WITH SOFT SAWDUST."

GUNSMITH, D. W. LEWIS, REPRESENTATIVE; DEVICE OF A THRESHING MACHINE LABELED "UNION" WITH ABE FEEDING IN SNAKES, WHILE HE SAYS TO ANDY WHO HOLDS THE BAG, "WELL ANDY THIS IS THE WORST GRAIN WE EVER THRESHED." ANDY REPLIES, "YES ABE, BUT THE MACHINE IS GOOD FOR IT."

SHOEMAKER, A. NELLIS, REPRESENTATIVE; A MAN AT WORK ON A BENCH SAYING "WITH FIRNESS WE STRENGTHEN THE SOLE OF OLD ABE, WITH OUR FIRST, LAST AND AWF."

MILLER, G. G. CAMPBELL, REPRESENTATIVE; LINCOLN MILLS, OLD ABE IS STILL ABLE TO RUN THIS MILL."

MARBLE YARD, D. STEVENSON, REPRESENTATIVE; DEVICE OF A MONUMENT INSCRIBED "TO THE MEMORY OF THE GRAVE DIGGER OF THE CHICKAHOMINY, GEO. B. McCLELLAN; DIED FROM THE EFFECTS OF THE CHICAGO PLATFORM, ACCEPTED SEPT. 8, 1864."

PROFESSOR DONAT, the astronomer at Florence, announces the discovery of a new comet, being the third of the present year, in the constellation of Leo Minor. Its motion is very slow, which leads to the supposition that it is approaching the earth and sun, and is, therefore, not unlikely to appear under much larger dimensions than at present. Mr. Donat further states that the second comet of this year, discovered on the 29th of July last, has disappeared from the Northern hemisphere; but is still visible in the Southern one. We shall be able to see it in January next by the aid of very powerful telescopes.

The Troy Times, referring to the famous trotting horse Royal George, owned by Mr. Floyd, of Buffalo, says that J. N. Parker, veterinary surgeon, made a post mortem examination of the deceased horse in the presence of a large concourse of gentlemen interested in the turf. One lung of the animal was found to be entirely gone, and the other was in a state of disease, being filled with tubercles. The horse, which would trot a mile in 2:24, had worth about $15,000, had died from exhaustion.

Gen. DAVID B. BIRNEY, almost in the hour of his death, presented an example of patriotism which should be a reproach to all the lukewarm and a spur to all the careless nominally in the Union ranks. He was brought to Philadelphia on election day, with the impression of death upon his features. Before allowing himself to be taken to his home, he insisted upon being carried to the polls, to vote, as a citizen, for the cause for which he had fought as a soldier.

On the occasion of the anniversary of the coronation of Alexander II., of Russia, at the Russian Chapel at Paris, on the 7th of September, a strange incident occurred. While all in the chapel were on their knees in profound silence, a deep sepulchral voice exclaimed: "Long live Poland." Everybody was frightened excepting the priest, who went on with the service.

What is the proposition of the rebels to place their able-bodied slaves in their armies, and free them as a reward of their military services, but a confession that the rebellion is rapidly nearing its destruction? Would they dream of arming their negroes unless their case was desperate? Courage! the end of the rebellion is approaching.

The safety of our lines in Virginia cannot fairly be left to Lee's present army, which has too great a load on it already," says the Richmond Whig. The rebels "have robbed the cradle and the grave," writes Gen. Grant. "We demand an immediate cessation of hostilities," croak the Chicago Copperheads.

Hon. H. Winter Davis, of Baltimore, has been adequately rewarded for his share of the "Wide and Davis Manifesto," issued some time since. His patriotic constituents have refused to renominate him for election to Congress. Colonel Phelps, a devoted Unionist, will be Mr. Davis' successor.

We print herewith the noble letter from Matt. H. Carpenter in reply to the war democrats of this city, which should not escape the eye of our readers. It not only riddles the Chicago convention's platform quite thoroughly, but it crowds Mr. Jonathan E. Arnold into a mighty tight corner.

The 112th New York regiment have voted as follows: Lincoln, 235; McClellan, 9; Fenton, 24, unanimous. The 189th New York voted, Union, 481; Democrat, 77. The ballots were forwarded by mail to the several proxies designated by the voters.

Gen. BEAUREGARD recently made a speech at Augusta, Ga., in which he said "I fired the first gun at Fort Sumter, and I hope to live long enough to fire the last." So Beauregard is the "Black Republican," who began "the war for the negro."

The Union men have carried Nebraska, electing Phineas W. Hitchcock to Congress by over 1,500 majority, and electing ten members of the Council to the copperheads three, and thirty members of the House to the copperheads nine.

Do our readers remember Rebecca, the little white slave girl from the South? There was a whole column of argument in her answer, when she was asked if she would vote for McClellan: "If I were a rebel, I would."

Sonner Cox, of Ohio, having failed of re-elected to Congress, will have leisure to write "The Buckeyes at Home," as a sequel to his "Buckeyes Abroad."

A GENTLEMAN who has just arrived from Dixie states that recently the rebels in Mobile, notwithstanding the fact that caudles and other needful articles were very scarce, got up a grand illumination in honor of the victories of Early in the Shenandoah Valley.

The Springfield Republican says: "We learn that Caleb Cushing refused all invitations to speak publicly in McClellan's behalf, and privately denounces the Chicago platform as treason."

The Troy Times, referring to the famous trotting horse Royal George, owned by Mr. Floyd, of Buffalo, says that J. N. Parker, veterinary surgeon, made a post mortem examination of the deceased horse in the presence of a large concourse of gentlemen interested in the turf. One lung of the animal was found to be entirely gone, and the other was in a state of disease, being filled with tubercles. The horse, which would trot a mile in 2:24, had worth about $15,000, had died from exhaustion.

Letter from the Federal Capital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21st 1864.

Editor's Gazette:—"Bully for Sheridan," is an exclamation, that was frequently heard yesterday, as the news of Sheridan's last victory ran like wildfire through the city. The glory is all Sheridan's, for his army was being defeated during his absence from the front. He was in Washington but a few days ago, and while here said that he should whip Longstreet.

Well, imagine it. Let us also try to conceive, if the human imagination can this proposed august convocation. A very vast "wigmaw," huger than the Colosseum, is erected with swelling tiers of seats for myriads of spectators; for it is to be a highly imposing assembly—never was the like in "all creation" (a Yankee boast which this will be true,) and as we have a astonished mankind by our war, so we are to dazzle them by a peace which shall be the envy and despair of all nations.

Of course there will be a mighty shock of ladies from the several states;

for none have deeper interest in the result, nor a more legitimate curiosity to hold so many men of immortal names assembled on the grandest occasion in his story, up to this date.

The solemn assemblage, pregnant with the destiny of a hemisphere, is opened.

The heart of the vast multitude beats high,

and its breath comes quick as the delegates enter. Arrive the representatives of South Carolina; they take their seats

with courteous greeting, beside the honorable gentlemen from Massachusetts; and the

"Bay State" has, of course, sent her greatest men—there sits Banks, late commanding General at New Orleans, in civilian life; for all swords are sheathed, or turned into ploughshares or steel pens. At sight of him, perhaps, one of our Louisiana delegates can not but think sadly of his house and plantation sacked and burned

on Red River, and his children shipped off and landed, homeless refugees on the barren strand of Pensacola, by order of that Banks; but he represesach those thoughts;

they must not be indulged on this joyful

day; for look you, in a day of peace on earth and good will unto men. On the same bench you recognise also the calm, statesman-like visage of Sumner, who formerly, in the bitterness of his heart and sorrows of his head, turned us Southerners,

the "sum total of all barbarism;" and he is all smiles to-day as he looks on his

Southern brethren, for he says within himself, now I know that the Lord hath delivered them into my hands. And also the lofty brow of melancholic Everett, who conjured the very old women of Massachusetts, if they could do no better, to stab us with their knitting-needles; and

Benjamin Butler, whose wholesome discipline

tamed the spirit of the New Orleans woman, and put a bit between the teeth of clergymen of Norfolk.

All now all eyes are eagerly bent to gaze, as through another door, fit to the proud Virginians, holding their heads somewhat high at first; but soon they look more humble, when they find their allotted chairs beside the representatives of "Plowpton" Virginia, (for this, you remember, is a convention of all the States.) Dr. Buckner and General Hunter politely greet the gentlemen from the eastern fragment of the Old Dominion; and as the last named commanding General is announced, there is a movement

among the Virginia ladies in the audience.

They begin to inspect curiously through their jewellry, the jewelry which graces the arms and necks of the fair daughters of

New England, seated near by, and fancy

they recognize certain chains and bracelets.

Some may shiver and shudder, and hardly suppress a sob, when they see the man who burned their houses over their heads, and can almost fancy the roar against the flames, bringing their Delegates from Ilah's new "state" of Louisiana (some of them colored gentlemen) fraternally meet planters from the "coast," whose plantations have been leaved to Yankee agriculturists. As Ohio representatives take their seats, spectators

from Tennessee, perhaps think upon John

Morgan and his staff, with their heads dropped in the prison dress of the penitentiary. Not a Northern delegate who enters but calls up some Georgia speculator

for the memory of desolated homes, and murder shrieks, rising from burning towns,

and the wail of violated virgin girls, tearing their hair, until, by the time the convention called to order, the whole atmosphere seems laden with curses and ham-monies, and the monos of a hundred thousand ghosts cry out for vengeance.

Then the parson rises to open the proceedings with prayer. But it is best to stop here, lest we vrogo on blasphemy;

for what form of prayer will serve his turn? —

WHEN THE ADMINISTRATION puts its policy on paper, we must support it, whatever we think of it individually. When you hear of Mr. Field's resignation and of Mr. Wilson's taking his place; but at present there is a greater probability of Mr. Wilson being appointed Sixth Auditor in place of Hon.

Green Adams, who has finally resigned.

OBSERVER.

Preparations are making for a grand torch light procession in this city this evening. It bids fair to be a grand affair,

Wisconsin will take part and from present indications her residents here will make a creditable display.

The New York papers of Wednesday report the resignation of M. B. Field, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and the appointment in his place, of Hon. John Wilson, of Chicago. There is no truth in the statement. There has been talk of Mr. Field's resignation and of Mr. Wilson's

taking his place; but at present there is

a greater probability of Mr. Wilson being

appointed Sixth Auditor in place of Hon.

Green Adams, who has finally resigned.

Church of England choirs.

Rebel Review of the Proposition to hold a Convention of all the States.

(From the Richmond Examiner, Oct. 14.)

Future historians of America will pause, on the fact that, in this fourth year of the great war, certain parties in the North country, propose for a solution of their troubles, a "Convention of all the States," and further, that one, say two statesmen of the South received such project—with favor and recommended its adoption—so, in the midst of the third Punk War, some man had proposed to settle the matter by a report of a joint committee of the senates of Cartilage and Rome. The perplexed historians will strive to account for this phenomenon, and explain it away, or make light of it; but all in vain; there stands the record, a great party at the North, later, the dominant party, and hoping soon to be dominant again, having assembled at Chicago, to solemnly announce that war having failed to subdue the South Convention shall be called of all the States, North and South, to settle their little differences? Let future ages make a note of that, and account for it as you please.

A Southern man, Mr. Stephens, Vice-President of the Confederate States, gives, or seems to give, his assent to the monstrous proposal. "To such a Convention of the States I should have no objection as a peaceful conference and interchange of views between equal and sovereign powers." Mr. Stephens, however, probably thinks it wise, with some politic view or other, to encourage the idea, knowing the thing to be impossible.

Possibly the same explanation may account for the letter of Mr. Boyce, of South Carolina, to the President, wherein he most warmly urges, or seems to urge the President to meet this action of the Chicago Convention "by declaring his willingness for armistice, and a convention of the States," &c. "I think," says Mr. Boyce, "that action (namely, the action of the Chicago meeting,) demands a favorable response from our government." And the honorable gentleman carries the joke so far in his artful design of encouraging the Yankee peace men, as to effect a kind of enthusiasm for their noble idea of a convention. "Imagine," he cries, "this grand council of states in the act of convening after the people everywhere in perfect pursuit of their rights to elect their ambassadors, had done so. What a sublime spectacle! There would be nothing to compare it with in moral grandeur, in ancient or modern times."

Well, imagine it. Let us also try to conceive, if the human imagination can

this proposed august convocation. A very vast "wigmaw," huger than the Colosseum, is erected with swelling tiers of seats for myriads of spectators; for it is to be a highly imposing assembly—never was the like in "all creation" (a Yankee boast which this will be true,) and as we have Janesville Daily Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1864.

Stocks of goods and personal property have increased in value from two to three hundred per cent., since 1862. Have you increased your insurance in proportion? It costs double to build now, over and above what it did in 1862. You may well ask, am I insured? and if so, am I in the companies that are able to stand up against the breakers that are just ahead? Look out for squalls about these days. Grant, Sherman, & Co., are likely to injure the small fry. Dimock, at Insurance Head-quarters, Lappin's block, Janesville, Wis., has the sound Old-Companies that have been through the wars before. You will have the same agent to deal with five years from now than you had five years ago and that you have to-day. We pay when we lose. — Oot-dawm-ell.

INSURANCE HEADQUARTERS,

LAPPIN'S BLOCK, JANEVILLE, WIS., Oct. 1, 1864.

Are you insured? if not, this is the time, stoves are being put up for the winter, fires are constantly occurring in all directions. Those "very safe" risks," first class dwellings, burn every day. A No. 1 brick store and other brick buildings are constantly being destroyed by fire, together with their contents.

E. L. Dimock is agent for all the sound old Eastern Fire, Marine and Life Insurance Companies. You may be burned out to-night, get insured to-day.

REPORTED FOR THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE, BY DUNN & GRAY, GRIFFIN AND PROUD, DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, Oct. 10, 1861.
Receipts of wheat were quite liberal to day—there being about 2,000 bushels on the market, and prices rule firm, though at a slight decline on yesterday's quotations, ranging at $1.00 for milling grain, and $1.25 for all flours, closing with fair demand at those figures. Receipts of other grains were fair and prices unchanged. Butter is scarce and choices fall and fair sales quite at $0.35.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—Choice milling spring $1.00; shipping grain $1.00-$1.25.

FLOUR—Per bushel, $1.25 per 100 lbs., etc.

RYE—Quiet at $0.20 per 100 lbs.

HARLEY—Flour samples $1.00-$1.25; common to fair 1 bushel 25.
